Property comparables search is done with a property value of $100k/ft (or whatever), hence the lower price. Why not make the comparables search price $120k/ft, or $125k/ft? Or any number up to $130k/ft? That seems like a safer number to use than $100k/ft, doesn't it? I think this goes a bit further than a TRICARE search of properties and is designed to let you filter by the property type ("Sold" vs "Available"). If my observation is correct, then it
